3. 4-5 October

Four fighters and one PO-2 were seen cruising over the above camps for approximately 1 1/2 hours, beginning at noon, on 4 and 5 October. Sole identifying marks were white wing tips.

4. 10 October

All units described in Paragraph 2 preceding had evacuated the area by 10 October, when source returned to the scene. Out traffic began about 7 October. Source believes that the purpose of the movements between 27 September and 5 October was to train units in occupying bivouac areas and initial positions. A local farmer stated that some units had been loaded at GEORGETHAL (J05) for shipment to ALTENBURG (K27) on 8 and 9 October.

5. 11-16 October

The following rail shipments out of the OHRDRUF area were observed:

11 Oct - Loaded in OHRDRUF: 21 cars of troops, twenty-seven T-34/85 twelve SU-85 and trucks
